29th annual GREAT AMERICAN ANTIQUEFEST July 20, 21, 22, 2012

You're invited ...

The annual three day Great American Antiquefest routinely attracts exhibitors from across the U. S. and Canada. Many thousands of customers attend the festival every year.

Antiquefest is held in beautiful Onondaga Lake Park just outside of Syracuse NY. It is easily accessed from the NYS thruway with much of the show being visible to the many thousands of Thruway travelers. Onondaga Lake Park is conveniently located in the heart of New York State and is well known for Antiquefest, attracting many thousands of people per year. Central New York has a rich history and remains one of the most productive regions for quality antiques with many interested knowledgeable buyers.

Antiquefest offers acres of quality antiques, abundant and delectable foods, amenities that make shopping easy, including bulky item pickup services, free directories and an abundance of convenient free parking adjacent to the festival. Trees and rest areas throughout the grounds make all-day shopping a pleasurable experience. This uncommonly beautiful site provides a backdrop for great old garden and architectural pieces. It is a must shop for decorators and treasure hunters with its' vast selection of every sort of antique, from American period pieces to 1950's decorator items. Ephemera, vintage clothing, Victoriana, art nouveau, works of art, arts & crafts movement, jewelry, lighting, porcelain, antique glassware, advertising items, stoneware, Folk art, dolls, toys and the list goes on.....

Expect these amenities at the show...
